

SUPER SENSORY MEMORY and SUPER SENSORY ANIMAL YOGA

Super Sensory Memory and Super Sensory Animal Yoga are two game-based learning (GBL) activities designed to teach WordPower™ Sensory Vocabulary. The games, designed as interactive play, have specific learning outcomes including social interaction, vocabulary building, problem-solving, and turn taking, within an enjoyable and social environment.

WordPower Sensory Vocabulary:

1. GROUPS/SENSORY:

Nouns: brush, chewy, headphones, pressure, crinkle toy, fidget toy, gear toy, light toy, squishy ball, spinner, and more.

2. GROUPS/BODY:

Core Phrases: I see, I hear, I smell, I taste, I touch, I move, I balance, I feel, I can ____. I am ____.

3. EMOJIS: “I feel ____.” The traditional feeling icon(adjective) is followed by a second option, the emoji.

This convention provides additional support for the expression of feelings and emotional intelligence.

SUPER SENSORY MEMORY

MEMORY is an easy to learn card game for two or more players. To win this game, use your memory and match the most pairs. Play MEMORY and learn the names and WordPower symbol associations for the 8 senses. Practice saying sensory vocabulary and sentences using: see, hear, smell, taste, touch, move, balance, and feel.

Objective: The objective of the game is to make the most matches.

Materials: Print two sets of (double sided) Sensory Cards on card stock (8 cards per set).

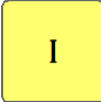

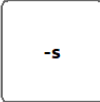

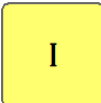

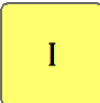

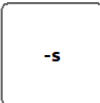

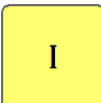

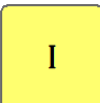

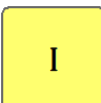

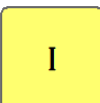

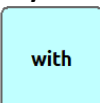

How to Play:

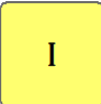

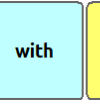

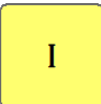

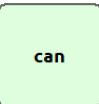

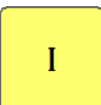

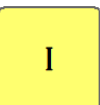

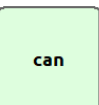

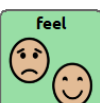

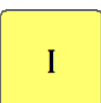

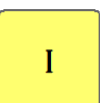

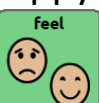

- Place all cards face down in rows and columns.
- Player turns over two cards and uses device to speak a word or phrase about the 'sense'.
- If the two cards match, the player keeps them and plays again.
- If they don't match, player turns them back over.
- Next player has a turn and game continues until all the cards are matched.
- The game is over when all the cards have been matched
- The player with the most matches wins.

SUPER SENSORY ANIMAL YOGA

Super Sensory Yoga is an activity used to learn names of senses through animal yoga. Yoga develops a sense of self-movement and body position. It strengthens the mind-body connection. Use the cards to pretend to be an animal and experience your senses as an owl, rabbit, cat etc.

Objective: Participants take turns drawing yoga cards and doing yoga poses. Yoga teacher reads prompts. All participants follow instructor's model and stare, sniff, flap and play.

Materials: Print two sets of Super Sensory Yoga cards, front and back. Animals will be on one side and senses on the other (print two-sided).

How to play: Up to 8 players

- Each player draws one yoga card
- Player speaks name of sense, or animal, or pose.
- Instructor gives group, the yoga prompt, for example, "Stare. Open your eyes wide. See like an Owl"
- All players participate in each pose.
